Thank you for considering a visit to Vogrie for your Rainbow sleep over, Brownie Pack Holiday or as a base for your Guides or Ranger Unit.

Location:

Vogrie Brownie House is situated in Vogrie Country Park which is surrounded by farmland. It lies south east of Edinburgh which is only 8 miles away. There are many places of interest to visit, a list of which is at the back of the booklet.

To get there you can take the Edinburgh Bypass to Sheriffhall roundabout, head towards A1 and take first exit to Jedburgh, A68 After approximately 4 miles turn right at the sign post B6372 Gorebridge. Pass through Dewarton village and turn left into Vogrie Country Park (approx. 1 mile) The Brownie House is at the end of the drive beyond the big house.

Keys

The keys for the house should be collected at the Golf Hut beside the new barrier at top of drive if still open - otherwise keys will be found at the Brownie House in the key safe fixed on the wall by the right hand side window and the number will be emailed to you before your holiday. You should collect a set of keys from the golf hut when open.

Key-safe keys should be returned back into key-safe as soon as possible and the golf hut keys should be posted through the Brownie House letter box on departure

Emergency Exit at night :

The gates are locked at night but you have a padlock key on the brownie house key ring should you need it
